- Please note that we cannot accept 3rd party deposit. Deposits should be made from a bank account under your name.
- While Tier1FX does not charge fees on deposits, such charges may be applied by the bank. We will credit your account with the net amount received (i.e. the amount you deposited minus any bank charges).
- All bank transfers are applied to your trading account on the day they are received. Please note that international transfers may take up to 3-5 business days to reach our bank account.
- Deposits need to be sent to our bank accounts in the respective deposit currencies (EUR, GBP, USD). If you send your deposit in a different currency, our bank will convert it to the base currency of the nominated account at the current rate.
